

Santa has always been there for you.

Through Civil War...

and the Depression.

World War II...

and social change.

This year, ask not what Santa can bring for you but what you can bring for Santa. Fight on brothers and sisters!

Happy Holidays!

It's been many hard years. We've shed a lot of blood. We're nearly on our knees. So sad. But we remain strong, steadfast in our belief we will triumph in this War on Christmas.
